To my freshie self,
Ateneo will break you. You will cry a lot, you won't sleep for days, your groupmates will disappoint you, become heartbroken, and fail LT's multiple times. Yet you'll survive. Why? Because the friends you'll meet, crushes, drunk escapades, and the people you'll help and uplift are the ones that count and will be remembered in the end.
Never stop being curious, learn from yesterday, live today, and hope for the best tomorrow. Here's to us moving forward,
