

Mary Beatrix R. Asis

MINOR IN LITERATURE (ENGLISH)

I've lost and found myself countless times in my four years here, somehow finding meaning in all the chaos with the help of good friends. As I leave to lose myself and find myself elsewhere, I know that it doesn't really matter where I go or who I become as long as I never run out three things — love, patience, and humility. Thank you Ateneo, I am overflowing.
