“Nothing is impossible, the word itself says ‘I’m possible!’” (A. Hepburn)
Looking back, it was a dream to graduate as a true blue Atenean. A dream fulfilled. I am proud to call myself an Atenean. I am grateful for all the people and experiences that shaped me into the person that I am today. These memories will forever be cherished. Any dream can be achieved as long as one believes in himself. It was truly a one of a kind experience. Thank you, Ateneo.

Amid the struggle of satisfying expectations and making ends meet, it is easy to lose track of what is important. It may seem as if you are standing only through your own two feet for the road ahead. However, keep in mind that you are the product of an institution that teaches how your life is not merely yours. At the end of the day, the choices you make will add more sense and meaning into your life, in line with your response to the call to serve.
