Woof... Woof... Woof.

Fitz Gerald M. Shioda

A true exemplar of a person who asks not for less burden but for broader shoulders, Fitz will turn an idea into an encyclopedia, a canvas to a work of art. That is just the nature of this young man and musician whose unquenchable thirst for self-cultivation pushes him further beyond his limits. Most importantly, he has a genuine heart that invites others to share the same passion. This is the dent that he has made in my life—one that can only be done by a true friend. (K. Poe)
