

Daniel Lorenzo C. Sarte

MINOR IN HISTORY

Never be afraid to be yourself, and always be transparent about how you feel. This is something I learned from Dan ever since I met him. Holding leadership skills in Antioch Della Strada and AIESEC has definitely helped me see how Dan is genuine and passionate about what he does, and how he never fails to stand up for his beliefs. Now going down the hill, I am definitely proud to see him become the man he is today, as the world gets to know Dan Sarte the way I do. (B. Clemente)
