College is not a walk in the park. It will push you to your limits, and challenge you to go out of your comfort zone all the time. The experience may be a little overwhelming, but it will make you stronger.

“To think is to create; live on a daily basis.” This has always been my motto in order to get through everything. It reminds me to take a break from time to time—take one step at a time—before going back to the grind. I hope it can have the same effect to you, too.
