"If you don't fully take every moment, and love every moment, and every person that you're with, your life will be over before you realise." (Jessica Chastain)

Nicole Anne A. Lorena

MINOR IN PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

Nicole is not overly fond of running, but she feels as though her life is one long marathon. As an aspiring journalist, she's constantly trying to chase interviewees, beat deadlines, write articles, and watch the news. Every once in awhile, however, she gets the chance to breathe, sleep, and engage in 3-hour conversations about the Star Wars films. Though exhausted, she has come to the realization that she must run her own race, as no one can run it for her.
