

Manuel Jose M. Samaniego III

MINOR IN DATA SCIENCE AND ANALYTICS

Since day one, Manny never felt the pressure to be a quatro kid. He's happy with his B's and C's because college isn't just about classes. He attended org events, watched Ateneo-La Salle games, and made friends. He was never the best student, but he was a diligent one. Once he sets his mind towards something, he does his best to achieve it. He wanted to pass the ACET, and he did. He wanted to become Ateneo MISA's VP for Marketing, and he did. He wanted to graduate in Ateneo, and he did.

Vito Caruso S. Seechung

"May your neighbors respect you, trouble neglect you, angels protect you and heaven accept you." (An old Irish toast)