"If you live long enough, you'll make mistakes. But if you learn from them, you'll be a better person. It's how you handle adversity, not how it affects you. The main thing is never quit, never quit, never quit." (William J. Clinton)

MINOR IN DECISION SCIENCE

College was a terrifying beast, ready to charge at me the moment I arrived. It was a stunning wake-up call to the reality I would experience outside of school. It was daunting, unnerving, and sometimes seemed insurmountable. Yet here I am, 4 years later, changed for the better. Challenged but unfazed. Beaten but not broken. I faced college head-on and have no regrets with the way it turned out. Molded by countless classes, friends, and organizations, I wouldn't have had it any other way.
