MINOR IN HISTORY

To my cat, Kitler, who will never get the chance to sneer at this lofty achievement.

Mary Beatrice J. Bagaforo

“What’s in a name?” Shakespeare once asked. Beatrice, a name nothing short of striking, is she who makes others happy. She is the bringer of joy. However, our Bea certainly gives Shakespeare a run for his money. Bea effortlessly lightens up a room with her presence alone even when she doesn’t know it. It’s amazing how much joy can radiate from a 5-foot girl. But if you’ve known her long enough, you wouldn’t be surprised at all. Beatrice, our Bea, is quite possibly joy herself.
