

Ana Francisca A. Gomez

Frankie's eccentricities are splattered on a canvas in such an abstract pattern; you wonder if any of it will ever make sense. Sometimes, you look at her and wonder how she even exists. But like an over-wrapped present, if you take time to unwrap the many different layers, you will find yourself face-to-face with a person so exquisitely unique. Suddenly, all those seemingly random splatters on the canvas all have meaning; all come together to form one beautiful masterpiece. (G. Pollisco)

Janina Ma. Krista V.
Halagueña

Ateneo, you were a dream come true! From having only 9 units at the start to going extreme with 24 units in my last year, spending all those random breaks playing pusoy dos in JSEC with friends to disappearing and staying for hours in Rizal Lib to study, and spending a semester abroad, to going back home winning the basketball championship in my final year. So many memories that can't be encapsulated in 500 words, but it was surely the best time of my life. Thank you, Ateneo!