MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

There is truly no one like Leo - he is the rare friend who could be both the wake up call you need to keep moving forward, or the breath of fresh air that reminds you never to take life too seriously. On one hand, he is someone you can fool around with, but on the other, he is still someone who reminds you what it is like to be genuinely cared for. Although people come and people go, Leo is someone you will never regret keeping in your life. (K. Gancayco)
