Maria Sofia S. Gaticales

MINOR IN GLOBAL POLITICS, HISTORY

Sofia is a very anxious person with many forgotten dreams. She doesn't like talking about her personal life; she values it and keeps it secret. She humbly believes that she hasn't accomplished or done anything very forgiving or worthwhile with herself/with her life in her time here yet, a feeling that many may resonate with. She realizes that the most important value in life is forgiving one's self and being humbled by her own experiences and insights. She is an advocate of finding one's self.
