

Sophia A. Gob

MINOR IN HUMANITARIAN ACTION

There are some people who you would describe as pure sunshine—and one of those would be Gob. She walks into a room with her radiant smile and warm greeting of “Mumsh!”—and suddenly you find yourself smiling. Once a shy freshie, she’s now a trusted confidante and is recognized as the Logistics Queen, while remaining as humble as ever. This is exactly what sets Gob apart—whether it be accomplishing PPFs or executing a Grand Jeté—she does all these with great love and humility. Magis at its finest.

Francis Neil I. Gorgonio

16 years of my life. 16 long years experiencing every emotion a person can fathom. This is really all I can say:
Thank You.