If you want to make a thesis on wonderful people then you should meet Gabby, she'll teach you.
I can definitely say that I know a lot about wonderful people. I learned that they often get anxious over whether they're good enough. Sometimes they hate themselves because they feel as though they don't give enough to the people they love. But the most important thing I learned is that they deserve all the love in this world. Thank you for being wonderful, Gabby. (J. Mata)

Noong pumasok ako sa Ateneo, alam kong wala akong alam. Ngayong paalis na ako ng Ateneo, mas marami akong hindi alam. Gayunpaman, kung meron akong nalaman at natutunan, yun ay ang magmahal ng kapwa tao nang walang tigil. Salamat, Ateneo! Dahil sa'yo, naging mas mulat at gising ako sa pag-ibig, sa hustisya, at sa pagkagutom ng mundo. Patuloy ang laban para sa mas magandang kinabukasan ng daigdig. Lalabas ako sa mundo, baon ang misyon na ito at handang magmahal kahit nahihirapan na. OBF!
