MINOR IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCE

This is for all of the thesis statements we prayed we wouldn't get but we did, for the hell sems, for the 2 A.M. doubts and existential crises. But most of all, this is for the family and friends who were more than enough to teach me how to hope. Thank you for the phone calls, the late-night Jabee deliveries, the long walks on the red brick road, and for always letting me eat whatever food you have left. Thank you for showing me just how beautiful this journey could be.
