“Remember Red, hope is a good thing, maybe the best of things, and no good thing ever dies.” (Andy Dufresne, Shawshank Redemption)

Julia Kim P. Li

Every meeting Julia Kim has with any person is a loving encounter. She embodies a Camellia sinensis: pure and beautiful in her simplicity like its flowers, and generous like its leaves. She is always the most emotionally intelligent person in the room. She radiates warmth and love and gives unconditionally. Even while going through tough situations, she never fails to make the loving choice. It is this immense strength and compassion that people admire about her. (L. Tuquero)
