Ironic as it may be for a person who is the best with words, it is true that nothing will encompass the deepest form of gratitude he has in his heart for all the wonderful years, countless lessons, numerous opportunities, and greatest encounters he gained in the Ateneo. But two words will perfectly describe the person he came to be: selfless and more. As his journey comes to close, the fact that he will always be the best version of himself every single day will certainly remain. (Cumigad, 2017)
