MINOR IN ENTERPRISE SYSTEMS

I sometimes got lost in the frenzy that is the Ateneo. From meeting my block for the first time, riding along with the commotion of org DP blasts, experiencing the 10-minute brutality of orals, finding the gaze of the absolute Other, and to all the lunch sessions and late-night chats, I could never have imagined that this is the college experience the Ateneo way. Thank you, Ateneo, for the opportunity to immerse and be part of such an amazing experience.
