MINOR IN CULTURAL HERITAGE

Studying in the Ateneo felt like walking on a dream - a dream that recognizes the needs of society and the realities that its people face every day. Learning was not solely through the grueling written requirements and the gut-wrenching oral examinations. I learned through going beyond the walls of Loyola and finding love on top of mountains. I learned to discover my true self by unconditionally giving my all to others. This is for my loved ones. I am thankful for these moments in vibrant hues.

MINOR IN CULTURAL HERITAGE, DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

This is for mom and dad who worked so hard to send me to college. This is for all the relatives who supported me in whatever way they can. This is for the friends who always made themselves available when I needed them. Lastly, this is for 12 -year-old Chaiz who always, always dreamt of graduating from Ateneo. Here's to the past 4 years of self-improvement and self-discovery. Here's to all the love, wisdom, and growth waiting ahead. OBF!
