

Anna Carmina V. Tayag

Never before had I ordered as many cups of McDonald's Iced Coffee Plain, slept as little (or at times not at all), stress-ate as much Chickenjoy with spaghetti, and questioned my life choices as much as in college. But I had also have never had this much fun.

Thank you, Ateneo. You broke me in order to make me whole again countless times, and for that, I am grateful.

MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

My years in Ateneo won't be meaningful without the people I've encountered and met. Through the years, I've come to a greater appreciation of the people that surround me: friends and family whose support strengthened me, and mentors whose wisdom taught me the art of living. I have come to the conclusion that these people not only sustained me in this four fleeting years but also gave meaning in this journey. For this, I'm glad and grateful to have explored the beautiful life that is the Ateneo.
