

Alvin Christopher O. Laohoo

I think I found myself a pretty good squad.

Roberto Angelo Miguel G. Lardizabal

As we go down the hill, people may ask us this question: “What makes the Ateneo so special to you?”

If I were to answer, I would say that the experiences shared with friends and teachers, make the Ateneo special. The ups and downs that I have gone through with them have helped me understand myself better and know my capabilities. It’s hard to name all of my friends and teachers involved here, but they have surely helped me discover who I am as a person, as an Atenean, and as a Filipino.