To me, knowing exactly what you want to do after graduation is overrated. The most important lesson I've learned in my past four years here is that it's the uncertainty in life that leads to the best adventures. And I could not have asked for better friends to accompany me than the ones I have made in college. As I leave the safety of Ateneo with the daunting future in front of me, I find comfort in the fact that what lies ahead is unknown. That is both terrifying and exciting beyond measure.

She's always in yellow, probably because she's like sunshine. Wise and kind, Kyra brings life wherever she goes. And yet, like the sun, she's a powerful force, burning brightly wherever she goes. When she laughs (and she laughs often), her joy shines out of her and you can't help but laugh with her. A loving guide that radiates happiness, Kyra may be as necessary and irreplaceable as the sun.
