MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

My stay in the Ateneo wouldn't be complete without the people I've met along the way. They didn't only make every second bearable and worthwhile, but meaningful as well. To my professors: you made me discover my potential not only as a student, but as being a person-for-others as well. Thank you for making me see the world and its struggles through a clearer lens. To my friends and orgmates: thank you for all the laughs, encouragement, and friendship. Thank you Ateneo, for the wonderful journey.
