“Through every dark night, there’s a bright day after that. So no matter how hard it get, stick your chest out, keep your head up, and handle it.” (Tupac Shakur)

Life is a one-way street. There is no going back, no such things as mistakes. Everything does happen for a reason. Always cherish every moment and experience because one can never relive his life. What is more important is whom you shared these experiences with. One can truly live life if he does not ponder much on the consequences of his actions.
