

Marvin John L. Amin

Kind; Honest; Apple Geek; TV and Movies person; Traveler; Wizard. Marvin has a lot of hobbies and characteristics that suit his lifestyle and personality. Friends, family, and professors alike try to push him beyond his limits into becoming the best version of himself. He had ups and downs throughout his stay in the Ateneo, but he found his passion in learning about the Chinese culture. Do things that make you happy. Do that, and you will find that you are meant to do something great.
