Learn to hope. Somewhere down the line, you'll end up feeling like your life is defined by the stress and worry you've accumulated. No matter how much work you put in everyday, there are always going to be obstacles obscuring your goals. This is what Ateneo has taught me. However, Ateneo has also taught me to hope, and that there are better days ahead of you. When you see yourself falling into your darkest moments, hope will be your greatest ally.

In life, you'll rarely meet someone as passionate, intelligent, and gracious as Casey. With every moment shared for the past four years, I had the opportunity to grow to love this person whom I am proud to call my best friend. She has been one of the greatest blessings in my life and, without a doubt in my mind, I can say that she is one of the greatest blessings for so many other people as well. (E. Nadal)
