

Heidi Ryanna Guevarra

I remember the first time I set foot inside Ateneo – how the guards greeted you good morning, how the kuyas helped you park, how the ates lead you to the right building. That is when I knew I made the right choice. Although these 4 years have definitely challenged me, knowing that there is a loving community endlessly supporting me makes everything worth it. Thank you, Ateneo, for showing me how it is like to love and to be loved – something that can never be learned elsewhere.

Alizza E. Ibrahim

Here's to continuously stepping out of my comfort zone. Thank you, Ateneo. I have many fond memories to look back on.