

Chynna Louise O. Ramos

Sa Ateneo ko makailang ulit natuklasan ang sariling kailangang hubugin nang hubugin para sa dulo, sa pagtatagpo namin ng Panginoon.

Jonina Marion V. Ramos

Jonina has been known for many things during her four years in the Ateneo. Her hair, for one. Being Moana, for another (look it up and compare). But really, nothing can beat her reputation of being a genuinely good person. And, maybe even an excellent filmmaker. It is a privilege to stand next to her, to work with her, and to be her friend. She is more than inspirational, but the best part is, she's just being herself.

(P.S. She doesn't have the heart of Te Fiti)
