“Carpe diem. Seize the day, boys. Make your lives extraordinary.” (John Keating, Dead Poets Society)

Ariana C. Herranz

Capturing the hearts of many through her vibrant positivity and her extraordinary athleticism, Ariana won't be hard to miss on campus and in the heart of every Atenean. She's a clear example of one who reaches her goals for others — her family & friends especially, and unconditionally achieving everything for them and with them in her heart. Despite all that she has been known for - a swim champ, a good friend - one thing's sure is that she's full of love & life willing to share with everything.
