

Edrick L. Cheng

Getting into college is one thing; surviving is another. These words guided me at the start of college. Beyond that, it was a different matter altogether. With full intent on maximizing the stay, taking Father Ferriols' "Lundagin mo beybe" to heart has made all the difference. Thank you for the five years.

Patrick C. Eser

No matter how good you are, if you stop striving to be better, you stop being good.