Going down the hill will always be a hard thing to do, but it's a part of life. We still have our whole lives ahead of us to explore and have great adventures with the people we love. We will all soon go on to pursue our own dreams and passions in the years to come.

To that I say this: we should not merely be content with capturing the world, but change it.

If your dreams don't scare you, they ain't big enough.
