“Pagsikapang magkaroon ng anumang karunungan na tumutugon sa kanyang hilig upang pakinabangan ng bayan” (G. De Jesus, Lakambini ng Katipunan)

Jose Maria D. Katigbak II

To the Metro Manila Development Authority (MMDA), thank you for reminding me every day on the road from Alabang to Katipunan and back that there is truly no hope for the traffic situation in this country.

To Starbucks Coffee, thank you for keeping me awake with your capitalist caffeine products, even though I'll never understand how people study inside coffee shops.

But most of all to Uber, thank you for being my last resort, only hope, and constant fall back. When no one else got me, you did.
