

Juan Carlo B. Lapus

"If you can survive walking from CTC to Bel, you can do everything!" Don't be intimidated by his serious stare, for inside this tough man is an intelligent and funny friend. Lapus is known to be late in all his morning classes, but he's never been late when it comes to comforting his friends. His laugh and weird jokes bring a smile to almost everyone in school. In his six years in the Ateneo, he wants you to know that if you elect him as president, "Ang pera niyo, safe sa bulsa ko!" (N.Flores)
