Ateneo may not have been my first choice, but it will always be my best decision. My first encounter with Ateneo was when I joined the fencing team wherein I found a family. My journey hasn't been an easy one. In fact, Ateneo made me experience my worst headaches, my biggest eye bags, and my greatest self-doubt. But despite these, Ateneo has given me my truest friends, my fondest memories, and my greatest achievements. With all that has happened, I will always be proud to cheer: ONE BIG FIGHT!
