

Vanessa Gabrielle V. Del Rosario

How do you summarize the most significant four years of your life in 500 characters? You don't. Which is why there's social media. Just check out my Facebook post if you want to see the full-blown senti message. Thank you, Ateneo for the amazing life lessons and all the people I met along the way. A quick shout out to: the OAA, LSOGC, Com Dept, my sardine friends, Chewy, Beanie, Bea, Juan(tums), my grandparents, Auntie Naomi, Auntie Debs, Mama, and God. I wouldn't have made it without you all.

Briane B. Dela Peña

Ateneo taught me to muster up courage in the face of difficulty. It opened up a space to learn from mistakes and grow. It drove me to not get eaten by the system, but instead, eat it, then change it. My gratitude goes to this second home for allowing me to listen to the stories of other people, and to tell my story—the story of the university's first student newscaster.