Les Brown once said, "Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you'll land among the stars." But I say, "Shoot for an A. Even if you miss, that's still a B+."

"Your name is Sofia? You must be very wise then," said every Philosophy professor I've encountered in jest.

As knowledge may be acquired through the pages of a book, wisdom, however, can only be obtained from lived experience. That's exactly what Ateneo has given me. Each academic struggle I accepted with open arms has allowed me to grow deeper in tenacity, diligence, and enthusiasm. I'm still not as wise as I'd hope to be, but I'm nevertheless learning and welcoming challenges as I go.
