

Joseph P. Asuncion

To be here was certainly a coincidence, but I haven't found myself to doubt any of it. To the friends I have shared my time with in the Ateneo, thank you for caring about me and others. I wish nothing but for you to live with love in your heart and some cash in your pocket to buy something you like. Through these years, I've learned to look past myself and see the other. I no longer see myself as a distant stranger in these lands, but a native. I have finally discovered home.
