

Isabel Beatrice C. Bautista

MINOR IN DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT

A list of things learned gradually, and quite painfully, on the hill:
 One, the repercussions of our past echoes into our present, but it does not define our being.
 Two, loving is a choice. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything.
 Three, with faith comes patience and courage.
 Four, grit is all we have when we are all alone.
 And five, we don't find meaning in life by ourselves, we find it with others.

Julia Inez M. Blando

MINOR IN LITERATURE (ENGLISH)

Ju to many. Julia to some. Jake to family. A self brimming with passion to her craft, her org, her friends, and her family. To the smallest of tasks, Ju will tackle with fervor. Amidst hectic schedules sits an empathetic soul always keen to listen, kind with her words, and true to her principles. Abundant with genuine care, Jake won't fail to make you feel at home. And so should you ever come across her in your thoughts, always remember to include yourself, for that is what she'll say.