

Brittney Gayle U. Ong

MINOR IN MANAGEMENT

Creative in thought with a kind and gentle heart to match. Her world reaches past the lenses of her camera or the songs she creates. A leader, student, and friend, she consistently trains to be a better person each day. A sensitive person of reflection, but of strong and amiable countenance—she truly is one of a kind. Her heart for God shines through in how she lives: assured of her faith and unafraid to explore and share it. There is no doubt that she lives for something greater than herself.

Isabella Mae S. Ostrea

MINOR IN FRENCH

“Let yourself be silently drawn by the stronger pull of what you really love.”
(Rumi)