Learning is constant.

In my years as a student of the Ateneo, I learned the most from those around me. Though I lost some, I gained more, and I can't thank these people enough. There is much to lose, yet so much to gain. As much as I will miss my college life, there is more in the future. I thank all my friends, my professors, and my family, for the past, the ups and downs, and also, for giving me a chance for the future. Goodbyes are not permanent. We will for sure meet again in the future.

College is like riding a bike, but the bike is on fire, the ground is on fire, everything is on fire. Despite that, I am proud to say that I have prevailed. Studying in the Ateneo has been a wild rollercoaster ride but it's been the best ride of my life.
