I see no better-fitting words to describe my Ateneo education than to say that it was a grand humbling experience. Ateneo has opened me to the truer kind of love that is present in the world. In the midst of brokenness and wandering, Ateneo showed me that I can only have a better grasp of myself in constantly losing it, and gain more of it by giving it. I can never thank you enough, Ateneo. Thank you for the formation. Thank you for the challenge to constantly be loving. AMDG!
