

Cecilia Marie Rita E. Bermio

I consider myself a lucky one to have Niña Bermio by my side. She made me feel comfortable in my own skin for she had no fears of being herself. Four years together made me admire her simplicity, her talents, her love for friends and family, and her relentless strength to face the most difficult challenges. She's the companion who dropped everything to listen to the pinches of my heart without any judgment. And for that, I'm thankful that Ateneo and blueREP brought us together. (Alvero)

Maria Patricia M. Bernas

MINOR IN JAPANESE STUDIES

Stages and Phases

Misha's path was never as straight as her lines in dance. From a freshman injury setback to 2 years teaching & performing all over the world, to returning to a new set of batchmates.

She was constantly met with the Unfamiliar.

Here's to 6 years of developing Patience, serving People, and finding Purpose in her Passion. Overcoming fears and dancing out her tears. Here's to readily welcoming the unexpected.

Embrace the Unknown. Allow the Uncertain. Dive into the Uncharted.