I have always been clueless, but now I'm clueless with a college degree. Here's to the best four years to date-- spent all my allowance but never felt more whole, found family in the ate and kuya personnel, said "I don't know" over 1000 times but had more certainty than ever - and realized that the bounds of Katipunan are nothing short of home. Thank you for the 16 years, Ateneo-- especially for all the traffic I passed going to and from Alabang every single day. Oh, the things I'd do for you.

Ateneo has molded me into the person I am today, and for that I am grateful. Thank you for the heartbreaking failures, the sleepless nights, the countless frustrations, and the petty fights-- for it gave way to me discovering, among other things, my strengths, my weaknesses, my values, and most importantly, my support system. Thank you for the four years Ateneo, and thank you to the people who have been with me every step of the way.
