MINOR IN SOCIOLOGY

4 years ago, I entered Ateneo as a completely different person. Now, I have become this person who has grown so much in so many ways that “thank you” won’t be enough. Leaving will be painful, but my heart is happy knowing I leave with these:

1. Lessons to inspire me through the impossibilities.
2. Friendships to cherish through the rough roads and smooth sails.
3. But most of all, passion, integrity, drive for service and magic to fill me all the way through.
