It's the walks to Bellarmine, the trees around campus, the strong smell of JSEC, the pollen in my hair, the bags in Matteo down, the cats of JSEC, the guard dogs, the stress when preparing for orals, the stomach ache before every enlistment, and all the unfamiliar faces I pass along SEC Walk. It's the little things that end up being the most extraordinary, and it's these little things that make up the best 4 years of my life.
