My four years here have taught me to take a leap of faith and push it even further. From the minute I entered Ateneo, I knew I didn't want to leave being consumed by the "what ifs" or the "could've beens". When you're surrounded by a supportive community who embraces you wholeheartedly and unconditionally, it stops feeling daunting to stumble and fall. To be given that kind of love in the past four years has made all the difference. Maraming, maraming salamat sa pagmamahal, Ateneo.

Ateneo, maraming salamat sa paggambala sa puso, pagmulat sa mga mata, at paggabay sa landas.
