

Jan Christien D. Donato

One of the best days of my life is the day I met Chris Donato. I didn't know it at the time, but I had just met someone who would become one of my truest friends. He's the most loyal person I know, and he'd do anything for the people he loves. A natural leader with unquestionable charisma and inspiring confidence, he challenges people to be better because he always sees the potential and the good in a person. It is my great honor and privilege to have him as a lifelong friend. I love you, bro.

A human body is uniquely created with a heart and mind that help one carry out his daily functions. These parts, the mind and the heart, think and beat differently for every person which makes me realize why we perceive things contrastingly. All of us have distinct definitions of success, aims, and goals in life. As we graduate from the Ateneo, I hope that we continue to soar as high as we can by using the beat of our hearts to dream big and think with the mind to believe that we can.
