Ateneo has been the best years of my life. I have learned so many things and grown as a person. Not only have I acquired knowledge of my interests, but I have also learned to become more human in accordance with others and the country. I'd like to thank God, family, friends, professors, and my significant other for their company and support during my stay. Thank you, Ateneo, for 4 wonderful years, and for imparting knowledge and values that I hope will stay once I enter the workforce and beyond.
