MINOR IN FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Life is not about winning the race. Life is about finishing the race. This is what I've learned in my four years in Ateneo. I will not get A's all the time. I will not get batch one every enlistment period. I will not get all the best professors. I will not get in the Dean's List every semester. The most important thing is that I did my best. I found out that it is better to enjoy the ride. After all the zigs and the zags, to the people who enjoyed the ride with me, I will always be grateful.
